Born in Williamsport, Pennsylvania in 1968, Tom Mazzullo earned a BFA from Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia in 1990, and an MFA from Syracuse University in 1993. Specializing in the medium of silverpoint drawing, he has exhibited in competitions, in curated museum shows, and in professional and experimental galleries all over the United States. Notable exhibitions include a showcase of metalpoint artists at the Lauren Rogers Museum in Laurel, Mississippi, at the California Museum of Art Thousand Oaks, and at the National Arts Club in New York, where his entry was featured in the Drawing magazine review of the exhibition. His artworks are in many public and private collections, including the Arkansas Art Center in Little Rock, the Everson Museum of Art in Syracuse, New York, and the Telfair Museum of Art in Savannah, Georgia. He is the co-author with Susan Schwalb of Silverpoint and Metalpoint Drawing: A Complete Guide to the Medium, published in 2019 by Routledge/Focal Press. He has taught at Hamilton College in Clinton, New York, at The University of Denver and the Art Students League of Denver in Colorado.
